Chapter 1 by Alycass Harvey

Chapter 1:

I walk down the street looking behind me as goosebumps run along my arms despite my thick coat. I move faster as the wind begins picking up pushing the loose leafs around the sidewalk. I stop under the streetlamp on 4th and Broad as the text had instructed.

I look around folding my arms across my chest trying to keep my body warm. That's when I see it. Movement in the distance. A shadowy figure with what seems like a limp in his left leg. Upon closer inspection I see he's wearing a long black trench coat and has one hand hiding inside his jacket.

I take a step back cautiously. He stands two feet away pulls out a gun and aims it at me.
